The Centennial Mural

The cover picture is a reproduction of the large mural, inside and facing the main entrance to Brennan Hall, designed by Patricia Lippert to commemorate the centenary of the founding of St. Michael's College. In the execution of this mural Miss Lippert received assistance from Sydney A. Horton, James Ball, William Daly, Victoria Selesnic, Julian Michalski, Patricia Barron, and other students or residents of St. Michael's College. The mural was painted as part of the decorations for the Centennial At Home, held in Brennan Hall on January 25, 1952.

Top left. The Coat of Arms of St. John Fisher, Bishop of Rochester. The original of this sketch was prepared by Alexander Scott Carter. It appears in stone over the entrance to Fisher House which was named in honour of Bishop Fisher whose canonization took place shortly before the opening of the Queen's Park building.

Bottom left. The Old Elm, which stood in the College yard north of the Clover Hill building, was St. Michael's most famous landmark, and one of the oldest and most beautiful trees in the city of Toronto.

Long upright panel, second from left. This St. Michael is reproduced from the window over the main altar in St. Basil's Church, placed there in 1878 to mark the silver jubilee of Father Vincent.

Figures at top, left of centre. The five figures of this panel represent Bishop Charbonnel, Father Soulerin, the Honourable John Elmsley, Father Brennan, and Father Teefy. Armand Francois-Marie, Comte de Charbonnel, was a student of the Basilian Fathers in Annonay, France. Following his appointment as the second Bishop of Toronto in 1850, he invited his former teachers to open a college in Toronto. He is the true founder of St. Michael's. He resigned his See in 1860 and spent the remainder of his life in France where he became a Capuchin.

Father Soulerin was the first Superior of St. Michael's, holding office from 1852 to 1865. He selected the site and determined the style of the original building on Clover Hill. He returned to France in 1865 to become the Superior General of the Basilian Fathers.

The Honourable John Elmsley was one of Toronto's leading citizens and the most famous local convert to Catholicism in the early nineteenth century. He set aside two lots on Clover Hill, the Elmsley estate, for a Catholic institution of higher learning, and on these the first college building was erected in 1856. His name lives on in Elmsley Hall and Elmsley Place. A great great granddaughter of John Elmsley, Ann (Brown) Walsh, graduated in 1955.

Father Laurence Brennan was pastor of St. Basil's Church from 1880 to 1889, and from 1891 to 1904. He made many contributions to the history and development of the parish, none more precious, however, than the installation in 1887 of the beautiful organ which has since accompanied the prayers of generations of students. His interest in students caused him to form in 1901 a Catholic Students' Club in the University, a beginning that grew into the present Newman Centre. His name is remembered in Brennan Hall at the head of Elmsley Place and symbolizes the historical close bond between the College and St. Basil's.

Father John Read Teefy, a native of Richmond Hill, was Superior from 1889 to 1904. He played a vital role in bringing about affiliation and federation with the University of Toronto, and was the first Editor of the Catholic Register. Teefy Hall is a memorial to his life and work.

Building, left of centre. Elmsley House was for many years the residence for Freshmen from the United States. It was the third residence of the Elmsley Family.

Bottom, left of centre. The ship appearing in this panel is the John Ross Robertson, which is known to have been in Toronto Habour in the early eighteen-fifties. It is used here to symbolize the arrival of Father Patrick Moloney, the first Basilian to arrive in Toronto. He accompanied the newly-appointed Bishop de Charbonnel from Southampton to Toronto, via New York and Montreal. The party arrived in Toronto by ship, putting up in Toronto Harbour at seven o'clock on the morning of September 21, 1850.

Centre. The large centre piece presents the slype or passage from Queen's Park to the college quadrangle. It is beautifully conceived and skilfully constructed in Alabama limestone. It was designed by A. W. Holmes, distinguished architect and life-long parishioner of St. Basil's.

Top, right of centre. These figures represent five Superiors of St. Michael's, from left to right, Fathers McBrady, Bondy, Vincent, Carr, and McCorkell. Father Robert McBrady was Superior from 1912 to 1915. For many years he was chaplain for the Sisters of St. Joseph. He first came to St. Michael's in 1863, and died as a member of the staff in 1936. His life almost spanned the first century of St. Michael's. Father Louis Joseph Bondy, Chevalier de la Legion d'Honneur, was for many years Head of the Department of French, and Superior from 1946 to 1952. Father Charles Vincent came to Toronto with the original staff in 1852. He was ordained on May 22, 1853 in the chapel of the Sisters of Loretto on Simcoe Street. He was Superior from 1865 to 1886.

Father Henry Carr, Superior from 1915 to 1925, and Superior General of the Basilian Fathers from 1930 to 1942, was the Founder and First President of the Pontifical Institute of Mediaeval Studies. In the course of his life he taught in four universities, and all four conferred an honorary degree upon him. Father Edmund Joseph McCorkell, Officer of the Order of Canada, was twice Superior, from 1925 to 1931, and 1934 to 1940. He was Superior General of the Basilian Fathers from 1942 to 1952, and President of the Pontifical Institute of Mediaeval Studies from 1956 to 1962.

Building, right of centre. The old "collegiate-English" building was designed by William Hay, a Toronto architect, and begun in 1855-1856. Additions to the original building were as follows: extension eastward 1862, north-east wing 1872, sanctuary of St. Basil's 1886, the south-east wing 1902.

Superimposed on the Clover Hill Building is the beautiful tower of St. Michael's College School constructed during 1949-1950.

Bottom, right of centre. The cornerstone of the Queen's Park building was laid on August 27, 1935, by Cardinal McGuigan during his first year as Archbishop of Toronto.

Vertical panel, second from right. This "St. Basil" honours the patron of the Basilian Fathers. It is taken from the window over the main altar of St. Basil's. The saint is here depicted as a western bishop with western mitre and crozier, to the dismay of many an antiquarian.

Top right. Between Clover Hill and the Old Elm there was once a well which for many years supplied the College with water. It was long a cherished landmark.

Bottom right. The Arms of St. Thomas More appear in stone over the entrance to More House.

Father Peter Swan, CSB, Appointed President

Peter Julian Michael Swan, CSB, B.A. '38, M.A. '42, Ph.D. '46 has been appointed President of the University of St. Michael's College. He will take office on July 1, 1978. During the session 1977-1978, Father Swan will be Vice-President.

Father Swan comes back to St. Michael's where he began as an undergraduate in 1935. He was born in Folkestone, Kent, England, and received his elementary and secondary education in Duncan, B.C. He continued graduate studies in Philosophy in the University of Toronto, receiving his M.A. and Ph.D. degrees. He entered the Basilian Fathers in 1939 and was ordained to the priesthood in 1943.

After lecturing in Philosophy at St. Michael's, Father Swan was Associate Professor of Philosophy at Assumption College, University of Western Ontario (later Assumption University of Windsor). He was Registrar at Assumption from 1949 to 1961, and Academic Vice-President from 1958 to 1961.

In addition to performing the usual duties of these offices, he played a prominent role in the negotiations which led to the separation of Assumption College from the University of Western Ontario, and to its establishment as an independent degree-granting university in 1954.

Father Swan comes to St. Michael's from St. Thomas More College, University of Saskatchewan, where he has been Professor of Philosophy and Principal since 1961. In addition he served as Superior of St. Thomas More College, from 1961 to 1967, and as a General Councillor of the Basilian Fathers from 1970 to 1973.

As Principal of St. Thomas More he initiated and carried through administrative changes that gave the college an appropriate governmental structure involving faculty, students, alumni and friends. Between 1967 and 1972 he served as a member of a Special Committee of the Council of the University of Saskatchewan whose recommendations led to the establishment by the university of a School of Religious Studies, a co-operative endeavour in which St. Thomas More has taken a leading role.

In 1968 Father Swan was a delegate of the University of Saskatchewan to the quinquennial general meeting of the Association of Commonwealth Universities at the Universities of Sydney and of New South Wales, visiting universities in Fiji, New Zealand, Australia, and the Philippines.

Father Swan is a chaplain of magistral obedience, Sovereign and Military Order of St. John of Jerusalem, Rhodes, and Malta.

William H. Murray, CSB, '15 1888-1976

A long and fruitful life as a Basilian ended when Father Murray died in St. Michael's Hospital, Toronto, on June 23. For many years of that life he was at St. Michael's, beginning in 1910 after his novitiate year. He was ordained to the priesthood on September 18, 1914.

From 1914 to 1922, 1925 to 1928, and 1931 to 1937, he taught French at St. Michael's and was Councillor, and Dean of Residence. He was Master of Novices, and pastor of St. Mary's, Owen Sound, Ontario. In recent years he was in retirement in St. Basil's Infirmary, Toronto.

The principal celebrant and homilist at the funeral Mass was Father John Murray, CSB, nephew, formerly in the department of Religious Studies, and now at St. John Fisher College, Rochester, N.Y. The final blessing was given by George B. Cardinal Flahiff, CSB.

Homecoming Highlights

Homecoming '76 began with Open House on Friday night. It saw the arrival of many out-of-towners, but a somewhat disappointing number of Torontonians to welcome them. There were a lot of "Do you remembers", interspersed with drinks and delicious hors d'oeuvres.

Saturday began at noon with the Boozer Brown football games. The alumni lost for only the second time in nine years of competition. Following the game there were hot dogs, soft drinks, and hot cider to warm us up. Needless to say, Fr. Hugh Mallon was snapping pictures at a great rate all weekend. The sun came out in time for the Varsity game and some walked over to the stadium.

At 6:00 p.m. Father Bill Irwin, CSB, '56 celebrated Mass in Loretto College chapel, with guitar and mandolin music, a liturgical dance by Sister Virginia Macevicius, and a dialogue homily by two '71 grads, Sister Maria Dietrich, and Greg Chisholm, Passionist deacon. We received communion under both species. It was a moving experience.

After Mass we moved across to Brennan Hall for cocktails and a delicious dinner. Mary Pat Moore, Homecoming Convenor, welcomed everyone and introduced Fr. John Kelly who spoke briefly about the fine quality of St. Michael's Alumni.

Following dinner we moved to the auditorium in Upper Brennan for a few hours of great music by the Chiapetta Band, dancing, and reminiscing. The honored years were joined by many of all years from '31 to '76. It was a great event.

We all met again in Brennan at 11:00 a.m. on Sunday for champagne and a tasty brunch. Again there were many from all years to join us. Father Kelly gave a short talk on the changes between the St. Mike's of 1956 and of 1976.

One dramatic change is the reversing of the proportion of students in residence and of day students. Another is that in 1956 the majority of the staff were priests and religious, living on campus, always available. Today the majority of the staff is lay. Father Kelly told us that President Evans is stressing a decentralization of the university, recognizing the advantages of the college system. St. Michael's need for space will be filled, it is hoped, by the acquisition of the former Research Foundation building, and of the properties at the south-east corner of St. Joseph and Queen's Park.

Father closed by thanking the Committee in charge of Homecoming and by thanking all who came. He urged us to look for records, write-ups, and pictures or other memorabilia to add to the historical display being planned for the 125th anniversary in 1977.

We all said our final goodbyes, with many planning to return in 1977.

Chapel Renovated

The first project for the 125th Anniversary has been completed by the Basilian Fathers of St. Michael's. In August and September the St. Michael's Chapel underwent a major, beautiful renovation under architect John Farrugia.

The Blessed Sacrament has been restored in the former sacristy at the south end, with an additional centre opening to be curtained off when necessary.

The altar of sacrifice, with lectern and credence table, has been placed on a plattorm at the east side. The celebrant's throne, originally in St. Basil's Church, is against the east wall.

Very pleasing effects have been created by alterations in the ceiling, and by new lighting. Red carpeting, and red upholstered chairs have been installed. The leaded windows have been repaired.

A confessional room has been provided in the room at the south east end of the chapel.

The stations of the cross, refinished, are on the west wall. Predieus at the entrance, and benches along the west wall have also been refinished.

The former chapel of the Blessed Sacrament, and in earlier days the so-called "Pullman Chapel", extending east from the north east of the main chapel has been converted into a bright and spacious sacristy.

Since the renovation, the chaplain, Fr. Joe Penny, CSB, has instituted a Students' Mass with choir on Sundays at 10:30 a.m., and daily Mass at 4:45 p.m.

St. Michael's Sesquicentennial Lecturer

J. M. Cameron has been University of St. Michael's College Professor since 1971. Born in 1910 at Manchester, England he went to Oxford (Balliol College) in 1928, took a degree there in Philosophy, Politics and Economics in 1931. He lectured at the Universities of Southampton and Leicester before joining the faculty of the University of Leeds. He was a member of this faculty from 1943 to 1967, and for the last seven years of that period Head of the Department of Philosophy there. In 1957-1958 he was visiting professor at the University of Notre Dame, Indiana and in 1964 Terry Lecturer at Yale University, New Haven, Connecticut. From 1967 to 1971 he was professor of philosophy and Master of Rutherford College at the University of Kent, Canterbury, England.

Professor Cameron has published several books, notably John Henry Newman, Images of Authority and an edition with prefatory essay of the 1845 text of Newman's Essay on Development. His many articles on a wide range of topics include Poetic Imagination, Pascal and Newman, On Death and Human Existence. He is a regular and widely acclaimed contributor to the New York Times Review of Books (especially notable are his articles "On Violence" and "The Prison of Sexual Liberation").
